Vocations Corner

“When I was in high school, I was involved in missionary activities at my parish in Asuncion, Paraguay. But the thought of becoming a missionary sister never occurred to me until after graduation, when I met the Sisters and Friars Poor of Jesus Christ. I started to go to the sisters’ house for eucharistic adoration and to help them serve the poor. Though I realized that God was calling me to do the same, I tried to ignore it. I had just begun working and going to university. But the desire to belong to Jesus and be a missionary kept growing and burning within me until I didn’t want anything else. After a discernment period, I joined the Sisters Poor of Jesus Christ. I love the joys and challenges of missionary life, which help me to grow in my love for God and his people.” Sr. Antonia of the Paschal Lamb; Sisters Poor of Jesus Christ; Columbia Magazine – Jan-Feb 2022
