Vocations Corner

A sage once wrote that a good marriage is like a fire around which others come to warm themselves. As we celebrate World Marriage Day on this Sunday, we realize that no matter our station in life - married, single or religious - we have benefited from this sacred covenant whether through the example of our parents, grandparents, and other role models or through our own stewardship of the marriage covenant. For the Catholic steward, marriage goes far beyond the legal or societal agreement that our culture might define. Marriage brings us countless blessings but is met with many obstacles. Busy schedules, the challenges of parenthood, the strains of finances, mortgages, issues of health, and aging - all of these tests the bonds of even the finest unions.
