Letter from Bishop McGovern

“Dear Friends in Christ,

On March 31, our Holy Father Pope Francis appointed me the new Archbishop of Omaha. As I will soon conclude my ministry as Bishop of Belleville, I thank all of you for your prayers and for sharing your faith with me throughout the past five years. I enjoyed being your Bishop and have seen many signs of hope for the future of our diocese. I hope that the seeds we have planted will, with God’s blessing, come to fruition in the years ahead. For more reflections on these years, please read our Diocesan newspaper, The Messenger, April 24, 2025.

I ask for your prayers during this time of transition. Also, please keep the intention of a new bishop in your daily prayers as the diocese awaits the Holy Father’s appointment of a new shepherd.

New Address

Archdiocese of Omaha, 2222 N. 111th St., Omaha, NE 68164-3817

With gratitude in the love of Christ,
 Bishop Michael McGovern”

Vocations Corner

Today’s Gospel story is the powerful question of Jesus to Peter: “Do you love me?” Then Jesus charges him to “Feed my Sheep”. We are all called to tend to the flock in our Parish. We must fulfill this through living out our own vocation – single, married, religious or ordained. We must encourage and support each other to live our calling.
