Excerpt from the “Message from Bishop Godfrey” June 25, 2026
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. (1 Corinthians 12:4-6)
 “As stewards of God’s gifts, we are called to recognize God’s gifts to us – sometimes that isn’t completely clear, to foster those gifts gratefully – becoming better at practicing their use, and obviously, to share those gifts generously, for the building up of the Kingdom of God.
 Once we recognize the gifts God has given us, we have a greater ability to use them for good. The Church relies on people knowing and sharing their gifts. Every parish has members who know and share their gifts and what a wonderful difference that makes. If every one of us did the same, our churches would be even more vibrant, joyful, welcoming places.”

Vocation Corner
 “Growing up as a Protestant in southern Michigan, I was incredibly blessed to have parents who took seriously their responsibility of raising me with faith. I didn’t think there was anything missing in my life until I met joyful Catholics for the first time when I was a teenager. Through their witness and friendship, I learned more about the faith. These friends invited me to attend a Catholic family camp, and it was there I first came to believe in the true presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, learned to pray the rosary, and felt called to religious life. There was only one problem – I wasn’t even in RCIA yet! I was received into the Church a year later, and I kept my heart open to the Lord’s call. He led me to the Queenship of Mary Community in Ottawa, Ontario. I made my final vows in 2016.”
