Vocation Corner

"Our faith formation begins through the faith of others, and my Maronite parents were instrumental in teaching me to do God's Will. Still, religious life was not something I considered until I attended a discussion about vocations as a teenager. After the talk, the thought came 'I guess it's possible God is calling me to become a sister.' Immediately, however, came a quick 'No, I don't think so.' Yet God gradually opened my heart as I grew in knowledge of Him and His merciful love for me. His invitation persisted, and through prayer and the sacraments – the mysteries, as Maronites call them – I came to realize His will and my vocation with much joy. When I met the Religious Sisters of Mercy toward the end of my fourth year of medical school, I knew I had found the community where God was Calling me to love and serve Him."
