Vocations Corner

“I was born in a small town in Michoacan, Mexico. My mother, a woman of great faith, instilled in me and my five siblings trust in God and kindness toward others, When I turned 15, my family moved to California. It was difficult to leave home, but I got used to the new school, friends, and culture. One day, I accompanied a friend to church, and Jesus reminded me that He had been waiting for me. I realized how much I had been moving away from Him, how much I needed Him, and I went to confession. I later encountered the Servants of Mary, Ministers of the Sick, who were visiting the parish. I began to discern, and after high school, I entered my postulancy. I am now a professed junior sister.”
