Vocations Corner

Did you know that there are special seminaries for men entering the priesthood later in life, where students range from ages 25 to 60? Many of these men had thought about being a priest at one time but pushed the idea to the back of their minds. They're men who have made a career change to a second vocation, the priesthood. Men who have been teachers, barbers, policemen, social workers, farmers, dentists. Some are widowers, even grandfathers. They now share one aim in life: to become a priest and serve God's people. Could you be one of them?
